

Name: Ar. J. Anupriya

Designation: Assistant Professor, MCAP, Thiruvananthapuram

Educational Details

B. Arch – 2013

College of Engineering Trivandrum

M. Arch – 2017

College of Engineering Trivandrum

About:

Architect and Urbanist by profession. Assistant professor at Marian College of Architecture and Planning from 2017, till date. Has work experience of 2 years in the industry as Junior Architect in Ahmedabad, Bengaluru and South Andaman, and continuing practice in the field. Have been part of government projects and worked on preparing masterplan draft in and out the state. Good at communicating in 5 different languages.

Interest:

Holds keen interest in the field of Urban Design and exploring places for a wider spectrum of exposure in the field, including alternative and passive technology in building construction, Urban ecology and environment studies. Interested and keen on exploring non-conventional methods of teaching.

Achievements/ Paper presentation/ Conference

- Part of the team in GITPAC for the preparation of draft report masterplan of Nilambur, Kerala.
- Organising Committee Member of ISTAU 2015 (International Symposium on Tropical Architecture and Urbanism) held at CET, Trivandrum. An International conference and workshop joined by eminent Architects and Urbanists from different parts of the world including AA School of Architecture, London.
- Paper published on “Reimagining the Gateway to Port Blair City- Case of Haddo” for National Conference on Technological Trends (NCTT) 2017 and got selected for presentation among the first five at College Of Engineering Trivandrum.
- Attended National workshop on “Sustainable Energy Development” conducted by Marian College of Engineering, Trivandrum, jointly organised by Kerala State Council for Science Technology and Environment (KSCSTE).
- Attended training programme conducted by Centre for Science and Environment, New Delhi on “Demystifying Climate Data for Communication and Action”.
- Attended online seminar on “Architecture Education and Practice post Pandemic” conducted by CoA TRC, Bhopal and IES College of Architecture, Thrissur.